

The Best is Yet to Come:

Understanding and Communicating with Elders

Karla Freeman, LCSW

Fred DeLorenzo, Jr.

Perplexed about how elders think? Trouble with communication? Growing old is an inevitable but immensely interesting chapter of our lives. Learn what recent research shows about the growth and development of the elder mind. In a playful and creative environment, we'll look at how the old get wise and become our cherished sages. Join Karla Freeman, LCSW and Fred DeLorenzo, Jr., President of the Santa Barbara Activity Directors Association, in gaining new insights that inspire patience and appreciation for this profoundly promising stage of life.

Karla Freeman, LCSW and Fred DeLorenzo, Jr.

Friday, September 14, 2007

10 a.m. - Noon

(Registration begins at 9:30 a.m.)

Tannahill Auditorium,
Schott Center
310 W. Padre St.

RN/LVN, CNA, MFT/LCSW CEU's: 2 contact hours.

Presented by the OMEGA Program of Santa Barbara City College, Continuing Education Division